2024 FR. JAIME C. BULATAO AWARD FOR TEACHING

The Psychological Association of the Philippines (PAP) is pleased to announce the opening of nominations for the 2024 Fr. Jaime C. Bulatao Award for Teaching. This prestigious award recognizes exceptional teaching in any area of psychology and is presented to an individual who exemplifies the teaching ideals of Fr. Bulatao. The recipient of this award is someone who, like Fr. Bulatao, fosters a genuine passion for learning in students by encouraging them to explore, experience, and experiment.

Nominees must be psychology educators who have been teaching psychology courses for a minimum of three (3) years (for full-time faculty) or five (5) years (for part-time faculty), are active PAP members in good standing, and hold at least a master's degree in psychology.

The chairperson or head of the nominee's home department is required to submit the following documents to the awards committee:

1. A nomination letter detailing the nominee's current position and length of service as a faculty member in the home department.
2. Name and full address of the nominee's school.
3. Contact number and complete address of the nominator.
4. A completed and signed nomination form along with a recent passport-sized photograph.
5. An updated Curriculum Vitae (including a current passport-sized photo) signed by the nominee.
6. A letter from the nominee accepting the nomination and confirming their willingness to participate in a panel interview if selected as a finalist.
7. Supporting documents demonstrating the nominee's teaching methods that inspire learning (such as student evaluations, innovative teaching practices, implementation of student-centered approaches, etc.).
8. A 15-minute video recording of the nominee conducting an actual teaching session.

Kindly send your nomination form and accompanying documents to com.awards@pap.ph by June 14, 2024. Thank you and we look forward to receiving your nominations.
